

SAYS MAYOR JOINED
IN ELECTION FRAUDSState's Witness Testifies Against Bell in Indianapolis Trial.

Indianapolis, Sept. 21.—Mayor Joseph E. Bell, who is on trial charged with election conspiracy, sought to obtain support in the primary of May 8, 1911, for Edward Lyons, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Treasurer, by promising better times for saloonkeepers, according to Harry Rodacker, an ex-saloonkeeper, who was a state witness to-day. The witness said Thomas Taggart, who was indicted with Bell, was in the room when this conversation with Bell took place, but that Taggart had nothing to say.

—Moore, fourth, evidence, however, testified at the morning session that

Fred Barrett, Democratic county chairman, and one of the men indicted, told him "Ed Lyons will be nominated, no matter who gets the most votes." Testimony was given by about fifty witnesses tending to show heavy fraudulent voting for the Democratic candidates in three precincts. Several of these witnesses were women.

Hopé to Save Murderer.
Salt Lake City, Sept. 21.—To save the life of Joseph Hillstrom, Swedish resident here have invoked the aid of the Swedish Vice-Consul in New York and the Swedish Minister to the United States. Hillstrom, a Swedish subject, is sentenced to death on October 1 for the murder of a grocer. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence. The Industrial Workers of the World, of which Hillstrom is a member, have been active in his behalf.

Twins Celebrate 80th Birthday.
John and James Stringham are celebrating their eightieth birthday to-day at Glen Cove, Long Island, where John lives with his daughter, Mrs. Irene Mudge. James Stringham and his wife live at 725 East Thirty-first Street, Van derwerker Park. The Stringham brothers are ministers in the Society of Friends and are still active workers.

Triangle Nights.

Pretty nearly every day somebody says—"But how in the world did you do it all so quickly?" And the answer is—"We didn't."

As a matter of fact, Triangle Film has been really years in the making.

But like many great enterprises which have been long in preparation—nothing was said of it until it was done.

To do first and talk later was the idea.

For a long, long time Griffith and Ince and Sennett have been making moving pictures that were so much ahead of ordinary ones that exhibitors almost fought to get them.

But like all ambitious men—especially artists—they were all the time fretting because they wanted to make them better still and were held down by the money limitations of low-priced theatres.

Even so—they were perfecting great organizations—which got better every day.

Among them they had got together about fifty of the most expert photographers in the world, and with each of these trying to make clearer, more beautiful pictures than the rest you can imagine the perfection of the studios!

It was natural enough that directors who were ambitious gathered about Griffith, Ince and Sennett—especially when they saw what photography they were producing.

All this time the acting was getting better. Really wonderful artists were developing—

Mae Marsh, Ralph Lewis,
Seena Owen, Robert Herron,
Wallace Reid, William S. Hart,
Enid Markey, Fred Mace,
Bessie Barriscale, Ford Sterling,
Mabel Normand, Roscoe Arbuckle,
Dorothy and Lillian Gish.

Everybody chafed under the holding back of Price.

Then Griffith broke all bounds—jumped all barriers—got some of his friends to help with money—and on his own hook produced "The Birth of a Nation."

Everybody said it was wonderful—and everybody said it wouldn't pay!

Then it was shown in New York; and the whole town clamored for seats at $2.00 each.

Don't you see how simple the rest was?

The men behind Griffith and Ince and Sennett took off the financial "lid" and the fur began to fly with a vengeance.

Each of these great directors had up his sleeve wonderful things he'd been wanting to do for years!

Here a certain stage star was the needed last touch; there a tremendous mob scene; still again some amazing mechanical "effect" that would cost a fortune.

Directors—camera men—actors and actresses outdid themselves!

Stage Stars that had always shied at moving pictures listened—and came!

Then the news trickled out; wise exhibitors, for they had found that the one best show in town always succeeded—no matter what rent had been paid for film—began telegraphing for "reservations"—and that the rest fought for what was left.

The star executives of the big film distributing companies let it be known that their services might be had.

And all this time no company had been formed—nothing had been arrived at beyond a rough, general understanding among the men who had put up the money.

Less than two months ago the thing finally took shape, and "Triangle Film" became a Corporation.

It had no liabilities.

Its assets were probably the most valuable pieces of paper ever executed in the film business—for they were contracts for the work of these three supervising producers for years to come.

Its chief stockholders besides these men—whose future is pledged to it—were Adam and Charles Kessel, Charles Bauman and H. E. Aitken, every one of whom had got rich in the film business.

Its executives, the pick of the industry.

Its good-will, the promise of business from exhibitors of the very highest type the country over!

So you see, it isn't so very wonderful after all that, newly corporate as it is, Triangle Film is already a fine, strong, smooth-running machine—doing business as easily and efficiently as though its parts had been working together for years.

Nor that the Triangle Plays which first appear at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York, Thursday night will have the perfection that comes only with years of preparation and months of polishing.

And it isn't very strange either that, just as a good many people in New York set aside one or two evenings a week as "opera nights," thousands of them the country over are already arranging for "Triangle Nights" this winter.

Have you set aside your Triangle Nights?

TRIANGLE FILM CORPORATION.

N. B. With each Triangle Drama there will always be shown one Triangle Keystone Comedy, so you may be sure of a laugh.

Which is a good deal to be sure of.
